

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS NOTICE - KEEP THIS NOTICE FOR FUTURE USE

This notice contains important information about your rights and your responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

Notify Us In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Statement

If you think your statement is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction shown on it, you will write to us at the address listed on your statement, as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first statement on which the error or problem appeared. You may telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, you will give us the following information:

1. Your name and account number.
2. The dollar amount of the suspected error.
3. Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.

Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the statement was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your statement that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your statement, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your statement. And, we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is.

If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your statement was correct.

Special Rule for Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may not have to pay the remaining amount due on the goods and services. There are two limitations on this right: (a) you must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address; and (b) the purchase price must have been more than $50.00. These limitations do not apply if the credit union owns or operates the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the goods or services.
